Customer Rights Policy

1. Introduction: The Bank has multiple policies (like Customer Service Policy, Deposit Policy, Cheque Collection Policy & Grievances Redressal Mechanism Policy, etc) related to customers, through which, the Bank tries to ensure fair services to all the customers dealing with Bank. Further Bank is a member of BCSBI, which ensures availability of minimum standard of services to Bank's Customer. Bank has also multiple policies (like KYC Policy, Customer Risk Categorization Policy, Policy for Customer Acceptance, Customer Care & Customer Severance, etc) which Bank is bound to follow in the light of directives of the regulators. These policies culminate into various rights and duties on part of the customers of the Bank and the Bank, which need to be adhered by both in order to have a lasting relationship. RBI directed Banks to have Customer Rights Policy on the model of policy as suggested by IBA. Customer Rights Policy in general details the availability of basic rights of the customers of the Bank regulated by the Reserve Bank of India. It spells out the rights of the customer and also the responsibilities of the bank. The Policy applies to all products and services offered by the bank or its agents, whether provided across the counter, over 'phone, by post, through interactive electronic devices, on internet or by any other method.
2. Objective: Customer protection is an integral aspect of financial inclusion, as the same infuses confidence in the minds of the customers while dealing with the Bank. The policy covers most of the areas related to customer rights as derived from the directions of RBI, BCSBI, IBA and other regulators. The policy has been drafted on the basis of the IBA guidelines on the subject. The following comprehensive Customer Rights Policy based on domestic experience and global best practices is brought out to enhance such protection.
3. Right to Fair Treatment: The customers have a right to be treated with courtesy without unfair discrimination on grounds such as race, age, religion, caste and physical ability while being offered and/or delivered financial products by the Bank.

In pursuance of the above Right, the Bank will -

 - i. Promote good and fair banking practices by setting minimum standards in all dealings with the customers;

Customer Rights Policy

- ii. Promote a fair and equitable relationship between the bank and the customer;
- iii. Train bank staff attending to the customers, adequately and appropriately;
- iv. Ensure that staff members attend to customers and their business promptly and courteously;
- v. Treat all customers fairly and not discriminate against any customer on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste, literacy, economic status physical ability, etc. Bank may, however, have special schemes or products which are specifically designed for members of a target market group or may use defensible, commercially acceptable economic rationale for customer differentiation. Bank may also have schemes or products as part of an affirmative action such as for women or backward classes. Such schemes / products will not tantamount to unfair discrimination. The rationale for such special schemes or terms will be explained by bank wherever required;
- vi. Ensure that the above principle is applied while offering all products and services;
- vii. Ensure that the products and services offered are in accordance with relevant laws and regulations;

While it shall be the endeavor of the bank to provide our customers with hassle free and fair treatment, bank would expect the customers to behave courteously and honestly in their dealings with the bank.

It shall also be the bank's endeavour to encourage the customers to approach the bank's internal grievance redressal machinery and approach alternate fora after exhausting all their remedies under bank's internal grievance mechanism.

4. Right to Transparency, Fair and Honest Dealing: The Bank would make every effort to ensure that the contracts or agreements it frames are transparent, easily understood by and well communicated to, the common person. The product's price, the associated risks, the terms and conditions that govern use over the product's life cycle and the responsibilities of the customer and Bank, would be clearly disclosed. The customer would not be subject to unfair business or marketing practices, coercive contractual terms
